

National Space Day – 2024

Poster Making Competition

Subject :- “Past, Present and Future of Space Technology and its Applications”

National Space Day is celebrated to commemorate the successful landing of Chandrayaan-3 lander on the surface of the Moon. To mark the first anniversary of this remarkable achievement on 23rd Aug 2024, U R Rao Satellite Centre of Indian Space Research Organization is conducting a Poster Making Competition on the subject “Past, Present and Future of Space Technology and its Applications”. Students and general public across India are invited to participate and make the celebrations a grand success.

Rules for Poster Making

- Subject for the Poster: “Past, Present and Future of Space Technology and its Applications”
- The competition is open to School Students, College Students & General Public
- Poster has to be Handmade
- Content / Concept of the poster has to be original and creative
- Partial or complete extraction from a digital or any other media / sources and using printout of images from any source is not desirable
- All kinds of art supplies (Pencil, Crayons, Sketch Pen, Water / Oil / Poster Colours etc.) may be used
- Selected Posters will be suitably rewarded

Procedure for Submitting the Poster

- A clear, good quality image of the handmade poster to be photographed or scanned
- Image size to be reduced to maximum of 3MB
- One entry per person is allowed
- Mention the details of the participant as given below, at the bottom of the poster
 - Name :
 - Category : School (Class 1 to 10) / College (Course & Year) / General public (Profession)
 - Mobile No :
 - E-mail ID :
 - Address : (District, State & Pin code to be mentioned)
- The image file of the poster has to be mailed to nsdposter@ursc.gov.in on or before 07-08-2024
- Students are requested to attach a copy of the ID card issued by School/College along with the Poster

